

A french school is looking for a young volunteer in civic service

Title of the mission: to accompany linguistic and cultural development by living the encounter.

Objective of the mission: to promote tolerance and respect by opening up to the riches of difference.

Presentation of the school: rural Breton school with 5 classes and 120 pupils aged 3 to 10, 5 teachers and 3 school staff.

Here is the school's educational project:

- to give meaning to learning in order to develop curiosity and the pleasure of learning.
- to be open to differences and to the outside world.
- to highlight all talents.
- to offer citizenship experiences.

To bring these priorities to life, the school committed itself in 2020 to a project that mobilised the entire educational community by welcoming a young foreigner on a civic service programme. Several other cultural and solidarity projects with an international vocation were carried out this year. In order to continue this dynamic, we would like to repeat the experience of hosting a young English-speaking European.

Description of the mission, tasks :

The mission consists of accompanying the team in its desire to develop language learning and to value each person in their specificity.

The volunteer will be able to :

- Support the team in the implementation of cultural and/or solidarity projects allowing the development of the talents of each student.
- Support the team in its desire to approach foreign languages in a natural and fun way.
- Participate in the animation of the "foyer" during recreation time, especially at lunchtime, and propose games, readings, cultural discovery activities, etc.
- Accompany the teachers during class time, which may be bilingual: rituals, PE, art, music, questioning the world, etc.

Reception conditions :

Age: between 18 and 25 years old

8 month assignment starting in November 2021

28 hours/week

Free accommodation and evening meals with the school's families (change of family approximately every 2 months).

Round trip paid by the school

Civic service contract : 473 € / month allowance.

If you are interested, please contact the school director by email: alextrotel@live.fr